10TH BRAHMAPUTRA VALLEY FILM FESTIVAL

CATEGORY: NON-FEATURE FILM COMPETITION

This is the first set of rules and regulations, labelled as NON-FEATURE FILM COMPETITION version 1.0

Please ensure you are checking the latest version of rules and regulations. Kindly visit the Brahmaputra Valley Film Festival (BVFF) website for latest updates.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS:

1. There are two methods of submitting films to the film festival- online submission and offline submission. Please read the relevant one carefully before filling the application form.
2. An applicant filling out this form, should either be the owner of the film's rights or have permission from the owner. Even if not the owner, the sole responsibility lies upon the applicant for making sure the information given is true. Any discrepancies found in the form; the entry would be disqualified. It will otherwise be assumed that the film has the requisite authority from the owner and will be screened at the Brahmaputra Valley Film Festival 2025.
3. For submission of films, there should be a Primary Contact Person who will be the main point of contact for all future communications regarding their submission to the festival. The email address and phone number should be correctly filled up for further communication and be ensured that the Primary Contact Person is easily reachable at all times.
4. For the films selected for screenings, an acknowledging email will be sent to the Primary Contact Person with all the director/s and producer/s of the film copied on it. Hence, kindly provide names and contact details of the director/s and producer/s of the film in both the online/ offline application form correctly.
5. Completed applications need to be submitted by the given deadline. BVFF is providing special rates for applications submitted within the early bird deadline. The festival will not take responsibility for the exclusion of films if complete information is not submitted by the deadlines.
6. The application will only be considered valid upon mandatory payment of application fee.
7. By submitting the application form, the applicant confirms that they have read and understood the rules and regulations listed, that they are legally authorized to submit the film to Brahmaputra Valley Film Festival 2025 and that the information given by the applicant is true and correct. Further, that the applicant protects BVFF against any claims to the contrary.
8. The cost of shipping an entry to the contest must be paid by the applicant.
9. All disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Guwahati only.
10. Selected entries will be awarded a 3 to 4-night accommodation stay in Guwahati for one (1) representative per film (preferably director or producer of the film).

Please note: Travel expenses will need to be borne by the participant.

NON-FEATURE FILM CRITERIA:

1. BVFF non-feature film competition is a part of Brahmaputra Valley Film Festival and is open ONLY to residents of India.
2. Non-feature films can include any films other than feature-length narratives, such as short films, documentaries, experimental films or animated works, fulfilling any of the following criteria:
 - Director(s) from India
 - Featuring stories/ topics related to India.
3. Films submitted to the festival must have been completed within the last 2 years (i.e. after 1st October 2023), and any films that are work in progress should be completed by September 2025.
